

CITIZENS' ASSEMBLY OF SCOTLAND WEEKEND 2 OUTPUTS 107 STATEMENTS ON THE SCOTLAND WE ARE SEEKING TO BUILD

Summary

The 353 individual statements written by individual members were condensed into 107 statements, through the first round of grouping of statements at tables. The 107 statements cover the breadth and diversity of statements on the kind of Scotland members are seeking to build.

For full detail of how the 353 statements were condensed to 107 statements, please see the Process Paper.

The kind of Scotland we are seeking to build will....

1. a country of high moral values
2. be a fair and progressive country
3. be a fair and just society
4. be a prosperous and financially secure country
5. accountable, transparent and professional by providing informed information to the people
6. be an amazing place to live
7. be fully self-governed
8. be more community minded
9. socially responsible taking most care of the vulnerable in society
10. tolerant and respectful
11. welcoming and treat people equally
12. to create more jobs especially for young people
13. ensure councils operate standardised policies
14. ensure everyone feels they can ask for help if needed and know where to go
15. have a government that will treat the population with fairness, compassion and transparency
16. greater and stronger state pension
17. have a strong and stable public services for all
18. protect and improve free health care
19. have an honest and accountable government
20. have equal opportunities for all
21. have equal opportunities for all
22. nationalise key industries and services such as rail energy and broadband and run them for the benefit of our people and not for profit
23. provide a free world class education
24. provide a tolerant secure and stable environment in order for you and your family to grow
25. serve as a moral, ethical and humane example for the benefit of the world
26. improve on living standards/quality of life for everyone now and in the future
27. have the NHS and public services as a foundation that is admired by other countries

28. be healthy and have more medical/mental health resources
29. healthy and caring environment
30. a nation that works 100% towards sustainability
31. take more care of the environment
32. an environmentally sustainable society
33. be environmentally friendly
34. be self sustainable
35. to look at the environment for the younger generation and to make Scotland a happy and healthy place to stay
36. be an environmentally sustainable place
37. eradicate poverty, seeks justice and provides basic needs and rights for all especially children
38. be inclusive
39. needs to break this cycle of rich and poor – we need to nurture the children who don't have the parents/carers to provide this basic need
40. fair income
41. eradicate poverty
42. eradicate poverty
43. fair and equal for everyone
44. make sure wealth is fair distributed and make sure that everyone is safe financially
45. fair living wage and support working and non working families
46. be a fair and safe place with no fear or favour
47. a society which strives for equality regardless of race, religion and financial security
48. promote social justice i.e. enabling inclusion for all
49. an inclusive and caring society
50. embrace equality, inclusion and be welcoming to all
51. equality and fairness for all
52. equal opportunities for everyone
53. value everyone having equal opportunities to meet their needs
54. affordable and social housing
55. tolerant - where everyone might be more mindful of each other
56. have welcoming and happy values
57. rich and poor are treated the same
58. a place that everyone loves
59. be more accessible for people over the full country
60. more honest more accountable
61. provide a greater and more structural foundation for younger generations future and equal opportunities through education and.....
62. bettering the education system starting from early years to encourage profession and development. Knowledge is power.
63. free equal educational opportunities for all
64. support and invest in education to promote inclusion and encourage varied avenues of learning
65. freedom and safety
66. have a set of societal values free from religious and political bias support everyone and their needs – nobody should feel alone

67. support her citizens and people to reach and achieve their goals, aspirations or dreams
68. treat all its citizens with respect
69. try to build a better community spirit
70. value its diversity
71. welcome, nurture, and support freedom, self-determination and political independence
72. be more transport accessible to everyone over the full country
73. provide housing for everyone
74. provide a realistic income
75. Prioritise housing for those who need it most*.
76. include the diversity of its citizens in making policy
77. invest in and provide a thriving and fit-for-purpose health service
78. have better incomes and a better living wage to reduce poverty
79. have a positive attitude of our capacities as a nation (of inventors)
80. get the oil flowing in the North Sea
81. have a duty to individuals, groups and the nation as a whole, in hardship and in ease
82. have a football team that can reach the world cup finals
83. deliver on its priorities with integrity
84. encourage and support all citizens to reach their full potential throughout their lives.
85. enhance your family lives for the future
86. ensure a future for younger generations
87. build enough amenities at the same time as homes
88. citizens that take personal responsibility about their community and environment
89. be supportive of the vulnerable and elderly in society
90. be the envy of the world
91. be respectful and flourishing
92. be respectful, welcoming and inclusive
93. be innovative, like being a leader in broadband
94. be kind and thoughtful
95. be Brexit free
96. be critical of its nationalism
97. be democratic, fair, honest, transparent and inclusive
98. be free of nuclear weapons
99. be free of poverty
100. be free of street weapons
101. be adaptive to a changing world
102. be a safe country
103. be a sustainable society where we balance our environmental, economic and social impact for the good of the country and its citizens
104. a healthier Scotland services and community
105. be a beautiful place where people would love to visit
106. be a country that other countries will want to follow
107. be a productive Scotland

*On Saturday 18 January at the third Assembly meeting, the members of the Assembly voted by 71% to replace one of the original statements with this slight recasting.